

Southwark Diocesan Archive Permission to Publish

Permission to reproduce and publish material from the Archive

When ordering copies of any material from the Archive, a copyright declaration must be signed agreeing to gain permission from the Diocese as copyright holder (or from the copyright holder if this is not the Diocese) before publishing the copies or any part of them. Permission to publish material from the Southwark Diocesan Archive can be requested by completing the Permission to Publish form below.

Permission is required to publish images of material held in the collections, and also to publish transcripts of all or a 'substantial' part of an item. This applies to all forms of publication (see below).

Permission is not required for the publication of short quotations or passages from documents, provided a full citation of the source is given.

Conditions of requests to publish

- Requests for permission to publish are considered on a case-by-case basis.
- Permission to publish is given for one-time,<sup>1</sup> non-exclusive use and is contingent upon receipt of applicable fees. A new Permission to Publish form must be completed, and an appropriate fee paid, for all reprints, further editions, or use of material other than for the purpose for which the original permission is granted.
- 'Publication' includes printed/ hard copy publication and also electronic/digital publications including websites and digital resources such as CDs and DVDs. It also includes use in film, video or television broadcast; use in a public display or exhibition; and, use in any kind of merchandise.
- The applicant accepts all responsibility for identifying the copyright holder for the materials being quoted, reproduced or published, and obtaining their permission.
- An appropriate citation for the material published must be given.

How to apply

Please complete the "Request to publish" form below, ensuring that it is signed (we require your original signature), and return it to the Archivist. If the Diocese gives permission to publish, you will be invoiced. Once your payment has been received, official permission to publish will be sent to you.

<sup>1</sup> With the exception of the reshewing of television programmes or films.
